

Workshop Topics and Presenters

Advocacy

Advocating for Public Resources for Urban Indian Children

Presenters: Nichole Maher, Lisa Pellegrino, and Dan Saltzman

Courts Catalyzing Change: Tools to Reduce Disproportionality and Disparity from the Bench

Presenters: Cheryl Baldomaro-Lucas, Lea Ann Holder, and Nan Waller

Ensuring the Educational Rights of Children in Foster Care

Presenters: Sandra McIlhenny and Judy Wiley

Ethical Issues in the Treatment of Juvenile Sex Offenders with Co-Occurring Mental Health and Substance Abuse Disorders

Presenter: Yolanda Harvey

From Breath to Life: Anishinaabe-Based Therapeutic Foster Care Standards

Presenters: Shawn MacGregor and Tracey Howg

Restorative Justice in Action: How Our Response to Child Sexual Abuse Can Prevent It and Promote Optimal Healing for All

Presenter: Alisa Klein

The Intersection of Domestic Violence and Indian Child Welfare

Presenters: Donna Honena, Lanette Bitsilly, Malissa Poog, and Josephine Halfhine

Tribal Customary Adoption: Achieving Culturally Appropriate Permanency

Presenters: Nancy Currie and Kimberly Cluff

Tribal Judges Panel: Child Welfare Cases in the Tribal Court

Presenter: Edmund Clay Goodman

Collaboration

Building Collaboration Through Shared Leadership with Tribal Communities and Child Welfare Systems

Presenters: Elvira Rodriguez and Augusto Minakata

Cedar Bough: Collaborations for Youth and Families

Presenters: Sande Allman, Andrew Grover, and Becky Greear

Chippewa Cree and the Breakthrough Series Collaborative: Collaborating for Kids!

Presenters: Stacie Hanson and Mary Windy Boy

Collaboration Efforts in San Diego County

Presenter: Dennis Schieffer

Collaborative Advocacy: Cross-Cultural Formations for the Protection of Native American Children

Presenters: Nichole Maher, Julia Maier, and Kory Murphy

Connecting the Generations

Presenter: Michele Maas

Collaborative Discussion Groups

Participants will have the opportunity to discuss how their individual and collective roles in communities can promote the well-being of AI/AN children and families. They will have the chance to get acquainted, offer their own knowledge and experience, and contribute to a shared vision. Feel free to network and create new relationships as you build support for your individual work.

Creating Tools of Sustained Change for Systems Collaboration

Presenter: Nadja Jones

Dream Catcher

Presenters: Cheryl Baldomaro-Lucas and Lea Ann Holder

Effective Tribal-County Collaborations Between Indian Child and Family Services, Riverside County Social Services, and the Riverside County Tribal Alliance (Office of the Courts)

Presenters: Louis "Luke" Madrigal, Sylvia Deporto, and Becky Dugan

Family Wellness Warriors Initiative

Presenters: Bobbi Donadio, Claire Kee, and Rick McCafferty

From Community Forward: Rebuilding Traditional Child Care Practice

Presenter: Maureen J. Chapman

From Theory to Reality: One agency's experience implementing a Native-specific, strengths-based assessment and case management program

Presenters: Terry Cross, Cori Matthew, Travis Rice, and Sandoz Murphy

Going a Step Beyond Collaboration

Presenters: Sandra White Hawk and Esie Leoso

Kahv'yoo Spirit: Equine-Assisted Growth and Learning Adventure

Presenters: Mary Gerdes and Andy Miritello

Making the Right Decision: Is Title IV-E the Right Program for Your Tribal Community?

Presenters: David Simmons and Ashley Horne

Minnesota American Indian Child Welfare Initiative: A Tribe-State-County Government-to-Government Partnership

Presenters: Jeri Jasken, Earl Robinson, and Kris Johnson

Naaniigaan Abinoojii: Our Central Purpose

Presenters: Kathy Kishiqueb and Lori Flinders

Native American Mentoring Initiative, Mentoring Children of Prisoners: Caregiver's Choice

Presenters: Harry Wilson and Kate Schineller

Signs of Safety: Working in Collaboration with At-Risk Families

Presenter: Heidi Hebditch

The Facilitator and Family Partner as Dynamic Role Models for Collaboration in Wraparound

Presenters: Angela Sanchez, Vicki Creel, and Darcy Wilde

The Family Home

Presenters: Diane McEachern, Richard Rees, and Karen Nohr

The Relationship Among Violence, Delinquency, and Protective Factors in AI/AN Youth

Presenters: Kathleen Fox, PhD; Kristy Alberty; Patricia

Carter; Kathryn Harding Cortright; and Thomas W. Pavkov, PhD

Using Ga-du-gi: Creating Collaboration Between Tribal and State Governments and Agencies

Presenters: Jane Goble Clark and Levi Keehler

Data and Research

Collecting Tribal Data: Where Do We Go from Here?

Presenters: Cheryl Montoya, Gene Thompson, Julie Chang, and Tom Pomonis

Evidence Matters: Learning from Tribal Elders

Presenter: Matthew Kull

Long-Term Foster Care: Data Supporting Alternative Permanent Placements

Presenters: Susan Quash-Mah and Jean Stockard

Participatory Research with Tribal Communities: A process for program evaluation

Presenters: John Day and Monica Day

Prepping Your Legal System for IV-E: A Roadmap Through Requirements and Opportunities

Presenters: Priscilla Day, PhD; Jack Trope; and Erik Stegman

Research Results from a Five-Year Program to Improve Services for Indian Children and Families and Reduce Disparities in Child Welfare

Presenters: Frank LaMere; Brad Richardson, PhD; Denette Derezotes; and Doris Wells

Tribal IV-E Data Reporting: The Opportunity Behind the Requirements

Presenters: Priscilla Day, PhD; Jack Trope; and Erik Stegman

The Canadian Incidence Study: Honouring the Dreams of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Children

Presenters: John Fluke, Shelley Thomas Prokop, and Elizabeth Fast

ICWA Compliance

ICWA and SACWIS (Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System)

Presenters: Loa Porter and Elizabeth Rudy

Rough Waters: Noncompliance Areas of ICWA Ahead

Presenter: Mary Jo Hunter

Techniques in Maintaining the Native American Family Involved in the Indian Child Welfare Process

Presenters: Ronda Metcalf and Cabrini Artero

The Wisconsin Indian Child Welfare Act (WICWA) Codification Experience

Presenters: Kris Goodwill, Loa Porter, and Mark Mitchell