

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Cross-Cultural Skills in Indian Child Welfare Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this training institute, participants will:

1. Understand the historic relationship between Indian children and child welfare policy leading to the Indian Child Welfare Act.
2. Recognize key cultural factors which have an impact on the helping process.
3. Be able to conduct a cross-cultural interview using culturally specific techniques.
4. Be able to incorporate cross-cultural assessment and intervention skills into their existing practice.
5. Understand the relationship between child welfare services and alcohol treatment.