Enhancing Basic Skills for Tribal/First Nations Child Welfare Workers
June 1–5, 2020
Location: Zoom (links to be sent out upon registration)

Agenda

June 1, 2020
11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. PT
Effective interviewing skills
- Introduction to social work interviewing
- Cultural considerations in interviewing
- Ethnographic interviewing

June 2, 2020
11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. PT
Assessment, case plans, and care coordination
- Elements of a culturally based assessment
- Case plans that help families achieve their goals
- Care coordination

June 3, 2020
11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. PT
Essential elements of working with substance-abusing families
- Substance abuse and tribal/first nations child welfare
- Basics of addiction and recovery
- Roles and strategies that support rehabilitation and recovery

June 4, 2020
11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. PT
Writing effective court reports
- The worker and the court
- Communication with the court
- Guidance for effective court reports

June 5, 2020
11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. PT
Case records and documentation
- “Who is it for?” values and principles of case recording
- Standards for documentation
- Challenges of electronic versus paper records

*Adjust the agenda to your time zone here.