

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association
Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

As a result of attending this training, participants will:

1. Understand the historic relationship between Indian children and the United States child welfare policy which led to ICWA
2. Learn the skills needed to identify, train and guide a potential Qualified Expert Witness (QEW) through their court process
3. Be prepared with the skills necessary to lead a QEW through the court process.
4. Recognize the elements and skills in leading a QEW through court procedure process.