

Establishing Positive Indian Parenting in Your Community Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this training, participants will:

1. Become familiar with Positive Indian Parenting curriculum and adapt it to their own community
2. Gain practice tips on how to solicit community engagement in organizing a parenting program that is representative to those served
3. Know the basic steps in developing a workplan to successfully establish a culturally responsive parenting program for their community